

Explore conserve celebrate

North Devon Coastal Heritage

Winter work programme
'18-19

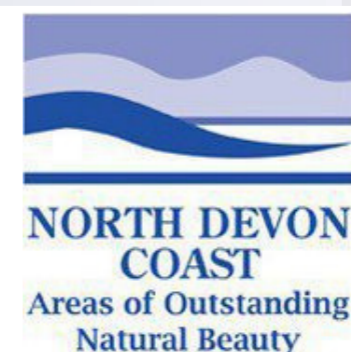

Do you love old buildings, hidden hillforts, secret sites, Time Team, archaeological digs, local history or Second World War features?

Volunteer opportunities

Get involved in:
Practical conservation
Volunteer training
Interpreting our heritage
Community archaeology

*see overleaf for details*

Winter work programme '18-19

from 10:30am-3pm - unless otherwise stated

Wed 5th December	Windbury Hillfort, Brownsham	Managing scrub to reveal hidden earthworks
Wed 12th December	Hillsborough Hillfort, Ilfracombe	Site maintenance
Wed 16th January '19	Embury Hillfort, Hartland Peninsula	Gorse management
Wed 23rd & Sat 26th January	Assault Training Centre, Braunton Burrows	Managing scrub on the WWII concrete landing craft
Wed 30th January	Windbury Hillfort, Brownsham	More work to reveal the ramparts
Wed 6th & Sat 9th February	Park Hill Limekiln, Combe Martin	Restoring the 19th century limekiln
Wed 13th February	Hillsborough Hillfort, Ilfracombe	Finishing up on winter tasks

*BOOKING ESSENTIAL***

Please note: task days may be subject to change

* No experience needed

Training and support provided

To find out more and get involved, please get in touch with our Heritage Officer,
Joe Penfold, email: joe.penfold@devon.gov.uk or call: 01271 388644
<https://www.northdevon-aonb.org.uk/coastal-heritage-0> @explorethecoast